FROM THE LIBRARY

OF F. L. GAY

JUNE 1, 1918

TO THE
RIGHT HONORABLE
His Majesties Principall Secretary of State, and one of His Majesties most Honourable Privie Councell.

I Most humbly crave pardon for bringing this Book under your Honour's Protection, without your notice or Approbation. I had a desire to be as kind to it as I could, and after serious consideration I found nothing would more advance it than to weare your Honour's Name in its forehead. For I have the World to witnesse, that your Honour is a Personage of so A 2 much much Justice, Truth, Integrity, and Candour, that I never saw that man that was not convinc'd of it ; you being (by the generall voyce of this Nation) that righteous great Officer of State, in whom both His Majesty and his People are happy. This was a Truth Twenty yeares since, and is so still, and will be as long as God thinks us fit to enjoy the blessing of your Life, which God Almighty continue long among us, that His Majesty and your Honour with those perfect Gentlemen your Sons may live to see the fruits of the Prayers of a whole Nation, in which number is

Your Honour's most humble Admirer and most obedient Servant

Humphrey Moseley.

To the Reader.

You have that here which hath been looked for above these thirty yeares, A Catalogue of all Knights made by King James since his comming to this Crown. If you aske why it staid so long, and comes now, 'twas none of our fault, but the iniquity of the times that obstructed this as well as better things. And we tender it now, to shew the Necessity and Custome of Kings in conferring Honours upon their Acquest of new Crownes or Restauration to old. Next, that you may see how our Gracious Sovereigne (in all the twelve yeares of his various Afflictions, when he had nothing else but Honour

To the Reader.

Honour to bestow,) though now He hath reigned halfe as long as His Glorious Father, yet hath not made a quarter so many Knights, nor his Father a third part so many as his Grandfather. And yet King James then saw it necessary upon that Change and Union of his people: For of 2223 Knights (so many there were since he came for England) there were about 900 made the first yere. Now if you observe the Historie of those dayes, you'll find many Knighted who (in the time of the late Queen) had shewed small affection to that King of Peace.
But he was wise, and best knew how to make up a Breach. And if any of the Sonnes of those Knights have since forgotten the favours of King James, they have now fresh occasion to remember it in duty to a Prince as mercifull as ever sate upon this Throne; who is now so apparently the Favorite

To the Reader.

rite of Heaven, that nothing but our Ingratitude can prevent our Happiness.

'Tis possible some think they have not Preferment suitable to their merit: and if His Majesty had as many Places to give as Subjects to receive them, yet some would still think so. We are all Adam's Sonnes, and every man would be greatest; 'twas so among the Disciples themselves, who though they were preferred before all the World, yet some were discontented. And if the King of Kings could not satisfie his favorites, his Vicegerents on earth cannot possibly hope for it. God Almighty grant we may all understand our present happiness.

Farewell.

referred to as

and the Lord, that nothing but our In-grounds can give us our life, and it is possible for us, that they have not sufficient ground to their minds, and if the Lord had a many more, to give us subjects to the Lord, we have more than enough to the Lord, all Adam's sinners, and every man would be guilty, there is among the first signs of confusion, who though they were not called before the Lord, yet have not a sufficient, and it is a King of Kings, and our Father is Father, the King of Kings, our Father cannot possibly hope for it. God will mighty grant us every all understanding and perfect blessing.
